

Dreaming about NIP fields

Franziska Jahnke

Abstract

We discuss the main conjectures about NIP fields, the implications between them and what their consequences are. In particular, we show that the two most common versions of the conjecture that an infinite NIP field is separably closed, real closed, or “ p -adic like” are equivalent. This is joint work in progress with Sylvie Anscömbe.