

Topological dynamics in model theory

Ludomir Newelski

Abstract

This is a survey talk presenting the basic notions of topological dynamics, applied in model-theoretic contexts. In particular I will discuss the Boolean (functional) interpretation of the model-theoretic universal flow of a given definable group G . I will discuss the relationship of the arising notions with forking and traditional stability theory.